Project Description

Excellent resume-building opportunity to learn more about how USAID works! We are looking for bright, energetic bi/tri-lingual students who fluently speak and write Spanish, French, or Portuguese to continue the development and translation of e-modules into other languages. E-interns will work directly with local staff in our mission in Cote d'Ivoire, Colombia, Peru, and Mozambique.

Additional Information

You may read more about and access the e-module series on USAID's public website at:

<http://www.usaid.gov/work-usaid/get-grant-or-contract/trainings-how-work-usaid>

Please reference the website and your opinion about what you can contribute to the online series in your cover letter. This will be the fourth year we will bring on board e-interns to support this Agency-wide effort. The project manager will hold bi-weekly calls with the group and also provide professional development advice (e.g. how to network, write a professional biography, market your skills, etc.)
